The Board may waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.

4.8.6 Sums payable in terms of Issue deemed calls -

(a) If by the terms of Issue of any Shares or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at fixed times, every such amount or instalment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Board and of which due notice has been given and all the provisions contained in this Constitution in respect of calls, liens and forfeiture shall relate to such amount or instalment accordingly and to the Shares in respect of which they are payable; and

The Company may at any time repay the amount so advanced.

4.8.8 Proof that call is owing - On the trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due in respect of any call it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Shareholder sued is entered in the Register as the holder or one of the holders of the Shares in respect of which such debt arose and either that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book of meetings of the Board and that notice of such call was duly given to the Shareholder sued in pursuance of this Constitution or, in respect of any instalment payable by the terms and conditions of any Issue of Shares, such terms and conditions. 4.9.2 Cancellation of unpaid amounts - No obligation to pay amounts unpaid on any Equity Security shall be cancelled, reduced or deferred without the authority of an Ordinary Resolution.

4.9.3 Notice requiring payment to contain certain particulars - The notice referred to in Clause 4.9.1 shall name a further day (not being less than 14 days from the date on which such notice is deemed to have been served) on or before which such call and all interest and expenses that have accrued or have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment are to be paid. It shall also name the place where payment is to be made (the place so named being either the Office or some other place at which calls of the Company are made payable). The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time and at the place appointed the Shares in respect of which such call was made or is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

4.9.4 Forfeiture for non-payment - If the requirements of any notice given pursuant to Clauses 4.9.1 and 4.9.3 are not complied with, any Share in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls, interest and expenses due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. 4.11.3 Application of proceeds of sale - Upon any sale being made of any Shares to satisfy the lien of the Company thereon, the proceeds of such sale shall be applied first in payment of expenses, next in satisfaction of the debts or obligations of the Shareholder to the Company in respect of which the lien exists, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the former Shareholder or his or her Personal Representative or assigns against whom such lien has been enforced or as such former Shareholder may direct.

Where an instrument of transfer executed by a transferor outside New Zealand would have complied with the provisions of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 if it had been executed in New Zealand, it may nevertheless be registered by the Company if it is executed in a manner acceptable to the Company or the Company's share registrar.

5.3 Form of transfer

Every instrument of transfer of Shares not falling within the provisions of Clause 5.2 shall comply with the following provisions:

- (a) the form of the instrument of transfer shall be any usual or common form or any other form which the Board may approve;

The Board may decline to register any transfer of Shares where:

- (a) the Company has a lien on the Shares; or
- (b) there is insufficient evidence of entitlement to transfer; or
- (c) registration of such transfer, together with the completion of any further transfers held by the Company and awaiting registration, would result in the proposed transferee or transferor having a holding below a Minimum Holding; or
- (d) such action is permitted by the Rules.

5.5 No other restrictions

Subject as set out above and to the provisions of any legislation, the Board shall not impose any restrictions on the right of a holder of a Share to transfer that Share or upon the registration of a properly completed transfer of Shares.

5.6 Suspension of registration

Subject to the Rules, the registration of transfers may be suspended by the Board for such periods of time as the Board may determine, provided that registration shall not be suspended for more than 30 days or such other length of time in any year as may be specified from time to time by the Act.

5.7 Return of unregistered Transfers

A transfer of any Share in writing that has not been properly completed must be promptly returned to the person submitting it, for completion.

5.8 Transmission of Shares

- 5.8.1 On death of Shareholder, survivor or Personal Representative only recognised - The Personal Representatives of a deceased holder of a Share shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the Share. In the case of a Share registered in the names of two or more holders the survivors or survivor, or the Personal Representatives of the deceased, shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to such a Share but nothing in this Constitution shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability which had been jointly held by the holder with other persons.

5.8.2 Person becoming entitled on death or bankruptcy of Shareholder may be registered – Any person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Shareholder shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be properly required by the Board, have the right either to be registered as a Shareholder in respect of the Share or, instead of being so registered, to make such transfer of the Share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made; but the Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had in the case of a transfer of the Share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.

5.8.3 Rights of Personal Representative - A holder's Personal Representative shall, upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Board be entitled to the same Distributions and other advantages, and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the Company, or to voting, or otherwise) as the holder would have been entitled to. Where two or more persons are jointly entitled to any Share in consequence of the death of the holder they shall, for the purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to be joint holders of the Share.

5.9 Transfer of Financial Products other than Shares

The provisions of this Clause 5 shall also apply to the transfer of Financial Products other than Shares, with any necessary modifications.

6. Distributions to Shareholders

6.1 Satisfaction of Solvency Test

The Board, if it is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the Company will immediately after a Distribution satisfy the Solvency Test, may (subject to the Act and this Constitution) authorise a Distribution at a time, and of an amount, and in such form, and to any Shareholders as it determines and may do everything which is necessary or expedient to give effect to any such Distribution.

6.2 Restriction on certain Dividends

- (a) The Board must not authorise a Dividend:
 - (i) in respect of some but not all the Shares in a Class; or
 - (ii) that is of a greater value per Share in respect of some Shares of a Class than it is in respect of other Shares of that Class, except as provided in Clause 6.2(b).
- (b) All Dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid, other than in advance of calls, on the Shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the Dividend is paid. If any Share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for Dividend as from a particular date, that Share shall rank for Dividend accordingly.

6.3 Method of payment

A Distribution payable in cash may be paid in such manner as the Board thinks fit to the entitled Shareholder or, in the case of joint Shareholders, to the Shareholder named first in the Register, or to such other person and in such manner as the Shareholder or joint Shareholders may in writing direct. Any one of two or more joint Shareholders may give a receipt for any payment in respect of the Shares held by them as joint Shareholders.

6.4 No interest on Distributions

No Distribution shall bear interest against the Company.

6.5 Deductions from Distributions

The Board may deduct from any Distribution payable to a Shareholder all such money as may be due from that Shareholder to the Company on account of:

- (a) unpaid calls and instalments and any interest payable on such amounts, in respect of the Shares for which the Distribution is being paid; and
- (b) such amounts as the Company may be called upon by legislation to pay in respect of those Shares, including withholding and other taxes.

6.6 Unclaimed Distributions and other moneys

- (a) A Distribution unclaimed for one year after having become payable may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed. The Company shall be entitled to mingle the Distribution with other money of the Company and shall not be required to hold it or regard it as being impressed with any trust.
- (b) A Distribution unclaimed for five years after having become payable shall at the expiry of such period be forfeited by the Board for the benefit of the Company, provided always that the Board may at any time after such forfeiture annul the same and pay such Distribution to the person producing evidence of entitlement. Any other moneys payable to any Shareholder or former Shareholder shall be disposed of in accordance with the Unclaimed Money Act 1971.

6.7 Calls in advance do not carry right to participate

Where any Financial Product is fully paid up in advance of calls, such payment, whether or not carrying interest, shall not confer a right to participate in Distributions to Shareholders.

6.8 Transfer does not pass right to any Distribution declared after such transfer

A transfer of Financial Products shall not pass the right to any Distribution declared thereon after such transfer and before the registration of the transfer.

7. Shareholders' Powers and Meetings

7.1 Exercise of powers reserved to Shareholders

7.1.1 Powers reserved to Shareholders - Powers reserved to Shareholders by the Act or by this Constitution may be exercised at an Annual Meeting or a Special Meeting. 7.5 Shareholders entitled to notice of meeting

Shareholders of all Classes (whether or not they have a right to Vote) are entitled to attend annual and special meetings, and to receive copies, or have access to electronic copies, of all notices, reports and accounts issued generally by the Company.

7.6 Notice of meeting

Written notice of the time and place of a meeting of Shareholders must be sent to every Shareholder entitled to receive notice of the meeting, and to every Director and the Auditor, not less than 10 Business Days before the meeting or, while the Company is Listed, 20 Business Days before the meeting or such other period as may be required by the Rules or recommended by the NZX Corporate Governance Code.

7.7 Contents of notice

7.7.1 Contents - The notice referred to in Clause 7.6 must state:

- (a) the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting in sufficient detail to enable a Shareholder to form a reasoned judgment in relation to it including any other matter which is required to be contained in the notice as required by the Act, the Rules or any other law; and
- (b) the text of any Special Resolution to be submitted to the meeting including, where applicable, the right of a shareholder under Section 110 of the Act.

7.7.2 Shareholders not entitled to notices unless address given - If a Shareholder has not supplied to the Company an address within or outside New Zealand, or an electronic address, for the giving of notices to such Shareholder, such Shareholder shall not be entitled to receive any notices from the Company and all proceedings taken without notice to any such Shareholder shall be as valid as if such Shareholder had due notice thereof.

7.7.3 Service of notices outside New Zealand - If a Shareholder has no Registered Address within New Zealand and has not supplied the Company with an address within New Zealand for the giving of notices, but has supplied an address outside New Zealand, or an electronic address, then notices must be sent to that physical address or sent electronically to such electronic address.

7.7.4 How joint holders of Shares may be served – All notices shall, with respect to any Shares to which persons are jointly entitled, be given to whichever of such persons is named first in the Register and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such Shares.

7.7.5 Service on Personal Representatives - A notice may be given by the Company to the Personal Representative of a member by sending it to them by name, or by the title of the Personal Representatives or by any like description, at the address, if any, supplied for the purposes by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or (until such an address has been so supplied) by giving notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy or other incapacity had not occurred.

7.8 Irregularities in notice

Invalidation - The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or a failure to receive notice of a meeting by, a Shareholder does not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

7.9 Proxies and corporate representatives

7.9.1 Form of proxy - A proxy form must be sent with each notice of meeting of Shareholders and:

- (a) as a minimum, so far as the subject matter and form of the resolutions reasonably permits, provide for a binary voting choice (for or against) to enable a Shareholder to instruct the proxy as to the casting of the vote;
- (b) not be sent with any name or office (such as Chairperson) filled in as proxy holder; and
- (c) contain a statement outlining who is subject to voting restrictions in relation to each resolution.

So far as is reasonably practicable, resolutions shall be framed in a manner which facilitates binary voting instructions for proxy holders.

7.9.1A Optional rules of form of proxy – The Company may provide in the proxy form that:

- (a) if, in appointing a proxy, a Shareholder does not name a person as their proxy but otherwise completes the proxy form in full; or
- (b) a Shareholder's named proxy does not attend the meeting, a named person of office will act as that Shareholder's proxy and vote in accordance with their express direction. If such statement is included in the proxy form, the proxy form and the notice of meeting must comply with Rules 7.9.3(c) and 7.9.3(d).

7.9.2 Proxy may vote - A proxy is entitled to attend and be heard at a meeting of Shareholders for which he or she is appointed as if the proxy were the Shareholder and may vote on all procedural matters including any resolution to amend any of the resolutions and to adjourn the meeting and vote on any resolution as amended.

7.9.4 Form of proxy - A proxy must be appointed by notice in writing signed by the Shareholder, or by appointing a proxy online as per the Company's instructions in the notice of meeting, and the notice must state whether the appointment is for a particular meeting or a specified term.

- 7.9.5 Lodging proxy - No proxy is effective in relation to a meeting unless the proxy form is received by or on behalf of the Company at any place or in any manner specified for the purpose in the notice of meeting not later than 48 hours before the start of the meeting. If the written notice appointing a proxy is signed under power of attorney, a signed certificate of non-revocation of power of attorney must accompany that notice.
- 7.9.6 When vote by proxy valid though authority revoked - A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal, or revocation of the proxy, or transfer of the Share in respect of which the vote is given, provided no intimation in writing of the death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company or by the Chairperson of the meeting before the vote is given.
- 7.9.7 Corporate representatives - Any corporation which is a Shareholder of the Company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any Class of Shareholders of the Company or at all such meetings and shall give notice of such appointment to the Company in the same manner as it would appoint a proxy. Until notice of revocation of such authority shall have been given to the Company any person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which such person represents as that corporation could exercise if it were an individual Shareholder of the Company.
- 7.9.8 Application of Clause - The provisions of this Clause 7.9 shall also apply to meetings of holders of Financial Products other than Shares, with any necessary modifications.

7.10 Quorum

7.11 Adjournments

- 7.11.1 If quorum not present meeting adjourned or dissolved - If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Shareholders shall be dissolved; but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other day, time and place as the Directors may appoint. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, the Shareholders who are present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 7.11.2 Adjournment of meeting - The Chairperson of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for thirty days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
- 7.11.3 Adjournment or dissolution of unruly meetings - If any general meeting shall become so unruly or disorderly, whether or not accompanied by any violence or threats of violence, that in the opinion of the Chairperson the business of the meeting cannot be conducted in a proper and orderly manner, or if any general meeting shall in the opinion of the Chairperson become unduly protracted, the Chairperson may adjourn or dissolve the meeting in his or her sole and absolute discretion, and without giving any reason therefor.

- 7.11.4 Dissolved meetings – unfinished business - If the Chairperson proposes to dissolve a meeting pursuant to Clause 7.11.3, and there is any item for unfinished business of the meeting which in his or her opinion requires to be voted upon, then that item shall be dealt with by the Chairperson directing it to be put to the vote by a poll without further discussion, whereupon such poll shall be conducted immediately and the meeting deemed dissolved on conclusion of the taking of such poll.

 - (b) on a poll, every holder of Shares shall have in respect of each Share which is:

- (i) fully paid, one Vote; or
- (ii) not fully paid, a fraction of the Vote which would be exercisable if such Share were fully paid, that fraction being equivalent to the proportion which the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited and amounts paid in advance of a call), provided that for the purposes of this Clause 7.14, a Share which is not fully paid is not of the same Class as a fully paid Share.

7.15 Voting restrictions

- 7.15.1 Proportional vote when amount owing on Financial Product – Each Financial Product which is not fully paid will carry the fraction of the Vote which would be exercisable if the Financial Product was fully paid that is proportionate to the payment which has been made (excluding amounts credited and amounts paid in advance of a call).
- 7.15.2 Voting restrictions - Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Constitution or the Rules or the Act, a person is not entitled to cast a vote in favour of a resolution when that person is disqualified from doing so by virtue of the voting restrictions specified in the Rules.
- 7.15.3 Exception - On a resolution for the issue of Financial Products under Clause 4 a person to whom it is proposed to issue new Financial Products referred to in that resolution is not disqualified from voting if the new Financial Products are to be offered on the same basis to all holders of Financial Products of the same Class as the Financial Products held by that person.
- 7.15.4 Disqualified person may act as proxy - Clause 7.15.2 shall not prevent a person disqualified from voting under that Clause, who has been appointed as a proxy or voting representative by another person who is not disqualified from voting under that Clause, from voting in respect of the Financial Products held by that other person in accordance with the express instructions of that other person.
- 7.15.5 Discovery of disqualified persons - The Company shall use reasonable endeavours to ascertain, no later than five Business Days before any meeting to consider a resolution referred to in Clause 7.15.2 the identity of holders of Financial Products who are disqualified from voting on that resolution and, if requested by NZX, must supply a list of such holders to NZX.
- 7.15.6 Meeting not void - No resolution of, or proceeding at, a meeting of Shareholders will be void on the basis of a breach of Clause 7.15.2.

7.16 Votes of overseas protected persons or joint members and service of notices overseas

- 7.16.2 Votes of joint holders - Where there are joint registered holders of any Share, any one of such persons may vote at any meeting, either personally or by proxy, in respect of such Share as if such person were solely entitled thereto. If more than one of such joint holders is present at any meeting, personally or by proxy, that one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the Register in respect of such Share shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased Shareholder in whose sole name any Share stands shall for the purposes of this Clause be deemed joint holders thereof.

7.17 Polls

7.17.1 Poll may be demanded - At a meeting of Shareholders, a poll may be demanded (before or on the declaration of the result of the vote):

- (a) by at least 5 Shareholders present in person or by proxy; or

- (d) by the Chairperson of the meeting.

While the Company is Listed, voting at a meeting of Financial Product holders must be conducted by poll and the Chairperson of the meeting must demand a poll prior to voting commencing on the resolutions before the meeting. Votes must be counted according to the votes attached to the Financial Products of each Financial Product holder entitled to Vote and voting.

7.17.2 When poll to be taken - If a poll is demanded as aforesaid, it shall be taken in such manner and at such time and place as the Chairperson of the meeting directs and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. The demand of a poll may be withdrawn other than by the Chairperson under Clause 7.17.1. In case of any dispute as to admission or rejection of a Vote, the Chairperson shall determine the same, and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.

7.17.3 Effect of poll on other business - The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has on a show of hands or by voice been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect made in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of general meetings of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the Votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

7.19 Equality of Votes – no casting vote

In the case of an equality of Votes whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairperson of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded, shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote and the resolution shall be declared to have been lost.
